Job Description and Person Specification

Read the job description carefully and start to think about whether or not you think you can do the job, whether you are interested in it, and why. The person specification is very important. It tells you what we are looking for in terms of skills, knowledge, experience, and personal qualities. This is the most useful document for helping you to complete the application form effectively.

Application Form

Refer to the job description and person specification when starting to complete the application form. It may be useful to write out the form in draft to avoid mistakes or repetitions, then write out the actual form.

Make sure that you clearly show how you meet the essential requirements of the person specification and include all the information you wish us to know. You will only be shortlisted for interview if you provide information to show you meet these requirements.

Do not leave any section of the form blank. Write 'none' or 'not applicable' where you have no information to provide. It is advisable to keep a copy of the completed form for your own reference.

Personal information

We ask for these basic details so that we can contact you. If we are required to telephone you at your current place of work, this will be done with the utmost discretion.

The information you give will be treated in strict confidence and will be used for this job application only. Personal data is carefully destroyed on conclusion of the recruitment process, unless required for new employee records. All sensitive data is handled in line with current Data Protection Regulations.

References

When choosing your referees please ensure that they are people who know about your skills and capabilities. One of these should be your present or most recent employer, or a teacher if, you have just left education. If you are unable to give two such names, you may choose someone who knows you in a personal capacity and can tell us about your character, personality and honesty. These should only be provided if no other referees are available, should not be related to you, and you should state how you know this person.

Education/Training

List all qualifications, including any for which you are awaiting results. We may need to assess whether you meet the required qualifications (if any) for the vacancy. Please include any relevant training.

Employment

Clearly show the details requested. When we ask about employment we are equally interested in voluntary work and work experience, either paid or voluntary. Please account for any breaks in employment, for example, as a result of returning to study, travel, unemployment etc.

Suitability and Experience

Give more details of your qualities, skills, experience, education and training. Demonstrate to us why you are a suitable candidate. Remember to make sure that you use the person specification and try to illustrate your skills and experience through examples of your achievements. You do not have to fill the whole space provided. Alternatively, you may wish to use additional pages if necessary, although these should not be excessive.

Special Requirements or Health Checks

Please tell us of any 'reasonable adjustments' we can make to assist you in your application or with our recruitment process. Please contact Support Services to discuss in confidence.

Depending on the duties of the post, we may require new entrants to complete a medical questionnaire. At interview, we may also ask health-related questions, but only to determine if you can carry out an essential function of the job, e.g. swim, lift sports equipment.

Criminal Records checks

If you are successful at interview stage you will be required to obtain either a Basic Disclosure, a Standard Disclosure or Protecting Vulnerable Adults Scheme membership. The level of disclosure check depends on the job applied for, and whether it is considered Regulated Work or not exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (as amended in 2013). All job offers are therefore conditional at interview stage, and it may take 7 to 14 days for Disclosure or PVG membership details to be confirmed.
